

TRANSFER REQUEST

Use this form to transfer units from one GET Account to another. The maximum lifetime limit per individual student is 800 units. The student receiving units must be a family member of the student transferring units. According to the IRS, family members include spouses, parents/stepparents, siblings/step-siblings, aunts/uncles and first cousins. For a complete list of eligible family members, please review IRS Publication 970 or call us. If you are transferring units to a different Account Owner a Notary signature is required. You must mail this original, notarized form, along with the required signatures noted below, to complete your request. We can only accept faxed or photocopied forms for transfers that do not require a Notary.
